

David Dunn

WIRADJURI ARTIST IN SCHOOLS

David Dunn is an award winning, international selling artist with thousands of art pieces distributed around the world. He uses contemporary techniques, based on Indigenous stories, built around silhouettes. David's painting style is simple, colourful, intelligent and he is an artist who respects his culture.

David has worked in over 100 early childhood centres, primary and secondary schools in NSW and Victoria.

Classroom Art Workshops

David instructs the children how to draw basic people by using stick figures. Children use his teaching to complete their own silhouette paintings on canvas boards.

David also runs plant and animal drawing workshops. He can provide boomerang and other tools for students to design and paint.

Sessions can run up to 90 minutes for art workshop and lessons. Up to three sessions/classes in one day. David provides all his own art materials including canvas boards.

Murals and Story Poles

David enjoys helping schools create individual art works in the form of paintings, murals and story poles which relate to the area.

The murals and story poles become a feature in the playground while the paintings can be displayed inside. Recently David has been creating Acknowledgement of Country signs (see middle photo above).

Mentoring

David can provide mentoring programs for students around connection to Country and Aboriginal culture. Please contact us to find out how a mentoring program could support your students.

"Thank you for such an amazing mentoring and art program. The students have enjoyed it so much."

- MURRAY HIGH SCHOOL, ALBURY

"David has been fabulous for our Preschool. He has helped us so much in providing experiences for the children and delivering positive messages to our community about Wiradjuri culture."
