

Volunteers are :

- People who care about their community and environment
- People who are willing to share their time, skills and life experiences with others
- Integral in providing support to the community
- Respected and valued by their community

Benefits of Volunteering :

- Opportunities to learn and develop new skills.
- Making a vital and significant contribution
- Being part of a team.
- Satisfaction for a job well done.
- Involvement in creating a long lasting teaching asset for future generations

Location

Contact Wirraminna:

Howlong Road Burrumbuttock
NSW 2642

Phone: 02 6029 3185
Email: admin@wirraminna.org.au
Web: www.wirraminna.org.au
Facebook: www.facebook.com/wirraminna

Volunteer Coordinators

Phone: Sue 02 6026 2766
Judy 02 6026 5356

WIRRAMINNA Environmental Education Centre Burrumbuttock

VOLUNTEERS An integral part of the Wirraminna team

What is a volunteer's role at Wirraminna?

- Be part of a team
- Provide practical support
- Inform team leaders about any park maintenance or safety issues
- Liaise with visitors and team members
- Attention to orientation and ongoing education
- Attend monthly volunteer meetings for support and input into quality improvements
- Be aware of risk management and Occupational Health and Safety

What are the areas where a volunteer can contribute?

- Weekly activities within the park
- Promotions during the year
- Administration
- Park maintenance
- Plant propagation
- Planting
- Ideas

Who can become a volunteer at Wirraminna?

- People who care about their community and environment
- People who enjoy working as part of a team
- People physically able to carry out the required tasks
- People who love plants and environment.